Pre-Conference Institutes Descriptions Thursday, September 6

12:00 - 2:45		3:00 - 5:45
1	Five Star Reading Strategies: Demystifying Comprehension Joan Smathers: Middle and High School Empower your student with just three magical reading strategies and watch them transition to competent and confident constructors of meaning. Learn how you can simply and effectively incorporate collaborative reading, questioning, and personalizing text to create competent readers. Keyword: Comprehension	6	Breakthrough in Beginning Reading and Writing Dr. Richard Gentry, Pre-K - 2 Groundbreaking research in brain scanning and Phase Theory are changing beginning reading and writing instruction in America. Come see how children break the code. This session includes video footage of Dr. Gentry working with three through seven year olds. Learn how writing and spelling support beginning reading. You may be amazed at what you see! Keyword: Breakthrough
2	Student-Focused Coaching: A New Model for Reading Coaches Jan Hasbrouck: Administrators, & Coaches K - 12 Student-Focused Coaching is a research-based model for systematically and effectively addressing concerns about student progress. This session presents a way to collaborate that keeps the focus on the kids! Keyword: Coaching	7	Poetry: Write in the Middle of Class, A Writing Workshop for Teachers Judy Young, K - 8 Participants will learn how easy it is to get their students' creative juices flowing as they actively participate in a variety of poetry writing activities that can be used immediately in the classroom, as well as suggestions on integrating poetry into all curriculum areas. Keyword: Poetry
3	The Joy of Language: Rhythm, Rhyme, & Harmony in Reading John Archambault & David Plummer, Pre-K - 3 This session will highlight the latest brain research as well as demonstrate the power of music. Melody and song carry words along. Once melody, song is imprinted, it provides a "base track" river of language for the emergent or struggling reader to float along on, effortlessly absorbing language, phonemic awareness, and "tuning the ear" to work with the eye for easier language development. Truly with Music, No Child is Left Behind! Keyword: Language	8	Literacy Essentials and Reading Network System's Florida Reading Model - Practical Applications Dr. Larry Tihen, Christine Busenbark, Patti Elkin, & Maria Schneider: Administrators, Coaches, & Teachers K - 12 This session will present information on how a district has implemented a practical, useable, systemic approach to address reading needs for all students utilizing the Just Read, Florida! LEARN Systems' Florida Reading Model. Application of the Model to district, school, Reading Leadership Team, and classroom situations will be presented. Keyword: Florida
4	Discover the Magic of Activating the Brain Pamela Davidson: K - 5 Come ready to activate your brain as we engage in activities that you can implement right away! Ingredients for learning include: motivation, success, and involvement; all sprinkled with a little TLC. Keyword: Brain	9	Neuroscience Research, Technology, & Effective Readers: Making the Connections Sherrelle Walker & Jacky Egli: K - 12 The latest neuroscience research will be demonstrated as well as how, with technology, significant and lasting results can be acquired quickly in language acquisition and reading achievement for ALL students. Keyword: Research
5	Primary Literacy Centers that Make Reading STICK! Susan Nations: K - 3 Susan will facilitate an interactive workshop focused on using literacy centers to reinforce whole and small group instruction. Participants will create open-ended centers that can be used with multiple reading levels and texts. Keyword: Centers	10	Creating Classroom Magic - Simple Art and Craft Ideas to Stimulate Learning Across the Curriculum Mary Dall: K - 2 This "make and take" session teaches easy art concepts and incorporates simple arts and crafts activities designed to enhance and stimulate reading writing skills across the curriculum. Easy art enhancements will be explored. Keyword: Craft
